Who We Are

As Raff Military Textile, we have undertaken the mission of being the best brand in the defense textile industry for more than a hundred years, especially in our country and all over the world.

Beginning in the early 1900s, our story continues as we proudly represent Turkish craftsmanship and vision all over the world.

Our Brand Name

RAFF stands for "Royal Army's Future Forces". Our brand name reflects our respect and value for the industry we serve.

Our Legacy

Based on deep-rooted family heritage, our experience has witnessed directly the ever-changing demands of the armed forces and the textile industry shaped accordingly and has specialized in military textiles, staying constantly up to date to meet the demands.

Global Reach

Throughout our operating life, we have successfully expanded our service area far beyond the borders of Turkey. Today, we are an international export leader, delivering our high quality products to countries around the world. Our products are tested in various conditions and laboratory environments and meet the standards of defense forces and security agencies worldwide.

Innovation and Technology

In an age where technology is constantly advancing, we have adopted innovation as our competitive strength. Using state-of-the-art machinery, our production facilities are also equipped with a skilled team that uses this technology in the most efficient way.

Quality Assurance

"Quality is never a coincidence, it is always the result of intelligent effort." Inspired by this quote, every product in our portfolio is the result of rigorous quality control and careful effort. We know that the lives of every personnel working in the field of defense depend on the reliability of our products and we take this responsibility wholeheartedly.

Since the Early 1900s...

Sustainability

One of the most important issues in our field of activity, sustainability covers the basis of the rules we pay attention to from the beginning to the end of our production.

All our activities and even our office processes are carried out with environmental responsibility. Our team continues to receive training to raise our awareness of sustainability, to follow research and developments, and to contribute to sustainability by constantly discovering environmentally friendly materials.

Customer Oriented Approach

One of the most important reasons for our success is the long-lasting relationships we establish with our customers. At Raff Military Textile, we always strive to meet and solve the unique requirements of our customers.

A soldier in tiger-stripe camouflage is positioned at a barbed wire fence. The soldier is wearing a matching bucket hat and is holding a submachine gun, aiming it towards the left. The fence consists of concrete posts and chain-link fencing topped with barbed wire. The background shows a landscape with some dry grass and a distant horizon under a clear sky. A red rectangular box with white text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

A woman with dark hair pulled back is wearing a military-style camouflage coat. The coat features a digital camouflage pattern in shades of tan, brown, and beige. It has a high collar, a front zipper placket with buttons, and a flap pocket on the left chest. She is holding the right side of the coat open, revealing a plain white t-shirt underneath. The background is a forest with many thin tree trunks and some autumn-colored leaves, creating a bokeh effect.
